< Back to front page

ROXBURY

Police seek help to find missing elderly Roxbury man

Posted October 8, 2010 08:30 AM

By Matt Rocheleau, Town Correspondent

Police are asking for the public's help to find an elderly deaf Roxbury man who is showing early signs of dementia and has been missing since early afternoon Thursday.

(Courtesy Boston Police Department)
Malcolm Hines, 76.

Malcolm Hinds, a black, 76-year-old, five-foot eight-inch, slim, gray-haired, brown-eyed man was last seen before going out for a walk while wearing a black hat, gray jacket, khaki pants and black shoes, said a police advisory.

Hinds was reported missing around 6 p.m. Thursday when police said they responded to 15 Wheatley Way. He is known to frequent the Dudley Street area, the advisory said.

Anyone with information regarding Hind's whereabouts or who may have seen him previously is urged to contact District B-2 detectives at (617) 343-4275 or to call 911. Anonymous tips can be made by calling the CrimeStoppers Tip Line at 1-800-494-TIPS or texting 'TIP' to CRIME (27463).

"The Boston Police Department is interested in the information you give, not your identity!," the advisory added.

E-mail Matt Rocheleau at mjrochele@gmail.com.

Twitter | Digg | Like Be the first of your friends to like this. | Yahoo!Buzz | ShareThis

Previous entry | Next entry

ADVERTISEMENT

[an error occurred while processing this directive]

ADVERTISEMENT

Waiting for Twitter to feed in the latest...

Follow other Boston.com Tweets | What is Twitter?