Author Chuck Hogan

participated in the Chestnut Hill campus' arts festival that drew more than 16,500 alumni and area residents. The three-day festival includes over 80 events; most are free.

For more information on the arts festival that runs from April 28 through 30, including Hogan's scheduled appearances, click here.

E-mail Matt Rocheleau at mjrochele@gmail.com.

Best-selling author Chuck Hogan, BC class of 1989, will make public appearances during the campus' festival, including participating in a panel discussion and holding a Q&A session after a screening of the acclaimed bank-robbery movie set in Charlestown. The movie released in September and is based on Hogan's book Prince of Thieves.

Hogan will be honored by the school with an alumni achievement award.

Last year, over 1,000 students, faculty and administrators
