An ice cream truck driver was cited by police after running a red light at a Roxbury intersection and then striking an MBTA bus Thursday afternoon, officials said.

Three bus passengers reported "neck and back pain" after the accident and were transported to Boston Medical Center, transit authority officials said Thursday. Damage to the two vehicles was "minor."

The ice cream truck driven by Pedro Garcia, 56, of Roxbury, was traveling down Clifford Street and, according to T officials, ran a red light at the roadway's intersection with Warren Street around 1:35 p.m.

Garcia was cited by police for failing to stop at a red light, officials said.
