Event organizers say they hope the breakfast, held at the Y, will raise $10,000 to support programs at the community center located along a Roxbury boulevard named after Dr. King, whose legacy and values will be celebrated at this week's gathering.

Suffolk County Sheriff Andrea Cabral will be the keynote speaker. Also scheduled to speak are Robert Lewis Jr. of the Boston Foundation and Dana Rogers, a Roxbury resident who lost 300 pounds through exercise and healthy living programs offered at the Y, event organizers said.

Marah-Ann Shaw, Roxbury native, former WBZ-TV reporter, and community activist, will host the event scheduled from 7:30 to 9 a.m.

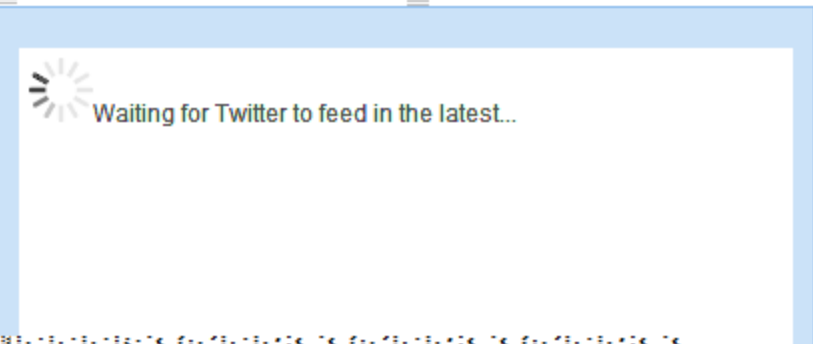

Among the 200 guests expected to attend will be Boston Police Commissioner Edward Davis, at-large city councilors Ayanna Pressley and Felix Arroyo, state Rep. ...

The Y announced recently that it is reducing fees for adults, families including adding a new young adult category for those age 18 to
