

Your Town

search

GO

< Back to front page

Text size

JAMAICA PLAIN

Just weeks before year ends, 2 JP schools announce how they will make up class time

Posted by Matt Rocheleau June 6, 2012 01:51 PM

Print | Comments ()

By Matt Rocheleau, Town Correspondent

Two Jamaica Plain schools announced Tuesday when they will make up 12 hours of learning time that has been owed since the schools' openings were delayed last September.

Students from the James W. Hennigan Elementary School and the West Zone Early Learning Center – except kindergarteners – are required to attend classes on Monday, June 18, when other Boston schools will be closed, according to a letter to families. As scheduled, a normal full day of school will be held on June 19.

On June 20 and June 21, instead of a half day of school, all students at the two schools are required to attend a full day of classes.

The two schools, housed in the same building in Jamaica Plain, started their academic years on Sept. 12 -- two school days after other Boston students began classes. The schools' openings were delayed in order to complete work to

ADVERTISEMENT

JAMAICA PLAIN REAL ESTATE »

142
Homes for sale

40
Rentals available

27
Open houses this week

1
New listings
this week

SPECIAL ADVERTISING DIRECTORY

CAMP GUIDE »

A camp for every kid!

Adventure, sports, theater, music, arts or technology—find the perfect camp for your child at boston.com/campguide.

ADVERTISEMENT

SPECIAL ADVERTISER FEATURE

insights

TERMINAL

Role-Based Access Control in

began classes. The schools' openings were delayed in order to complete work to remove trace amounts of a toxin in the building's old, flaking paint. More than 650 K-5 students attend the two schools.

Boston.com reported on Friday that leaders of the Boston Teachers Union blamed the Boston Public School Department for not having scheduled the make-up time – amounting to two school days – sooner. School department

Role-Based Access Control in Microsoft Exchange 2010

BOSTON SPORTS MEDICINE & PERFORMANCE GROUP
Attention DNS Journeymen!

MYOMO, INC.
Three Inspiring Stories of Stroke
Survivors

