A fund-raiser for a Jamaica Plain music festival plans to commemorate the morbid commonality between iconic musicians, including: Kurt Cobain, Amy Winehouse, Jimi Hendrix, Janis Joplin and Jim Morrison.

They all died when they were 27 years old.

A host of other popular musicians have died at that age as well. The group forms an eerie collection known as the "27 Club."

On June 27, Boston-area musicians will cover songs by some of the departed club's members, organizers said.

The event will raise money to help cover costs of the second annual JP Music Festival, which is planned to be held later this summer, according to an announcement.
