Boston Red Sox slugger David Ortiz played ball and fielded questions with a group of more than 100 youngsters at Catholic Memorial school in West Roxbury on Monday.

The camp featured hitting and fielding practice and a question and answer session with No. 34. Participants also had a chance to have their photo taken with Big Papi and they received commemorative T-shirts and autographed baseballs.

The event was hosted by financial company Citi, which gave exclusive access through its "Private Pass" program to children of credit card customers who used their Citi card to purchase $125 tickets.
