Samuel Adams will host a special event Thursday at its brewery in Jamaica Plain to benefit the American Red Cross' relief efforts for those affected by Hurricane Sandy.

Samples of Samuel Adams beer, including limited release and special styles, will be available. Attendees will also receive a souvenir Boston Lager glass and light refreshments. The fundraiser runs from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

Tickets are $25 or $50 each, priced based on different items included with the tickets. They can be purchased here.

Items, like blankets, jackets, socks, and sweatshirts, will also be accepted on behalf of the Salvation Army's storm relief efforts.

All donations received at the beer company's tour center during the rest of 2012 will also be given to Sandy relief efforts.
