designated as “inactive,” which would lead to delays the next t tries to vote, the city’s Board of Election Commissioners said.

Information compiled through the annual census is used to m integrity of voting lists and also provides accurate listings for tl commissioner’s office.

State law requires that every municipality in Massachusetts co census survey each year, officials said. In February, the Electi

Boston Police and other agencies and officials will be notified of when and where the teams will work.

Listing officers do not collect money, sign residents up for any services or collect Social Security, bank account or credit card numbers, city officials cautioned.

The listing officers plan to begin the door-to-door effort in Ward 12 in Roxbury and then work their way through Dorchester to Ward 17, city officials said. After that large portion of the city has been covered, teams will move to other neighborhoods.

Residents can complete their Annual Listing survey by phone Monday through Friday, from 8:15 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. by calling 617-635-3767.

When completing the survey online, a form must be filled out for each member of the household who is 17 years or older. To complete the online forms, visit www.cityofoboston.gov/elections.

Residents with questions or concerns should call 617-635-4634 or visit the Election Department website. Updates will also be posted on the department’s Facebook Page and on Twitter @BostonElections.
