Traffic and parking bans will be in place in several Boston neighborhoods this week and next week as thousands of college students flood the city.

The city said in an announcement that the restrictions were planned through a coordinated effort between the Transportation Department and the Police Department.

City's Office of Neighborhood Service "to help students as to minimize congestion on local streets."

day, Aug. 29 through Monday,

- Beacon Street into Kenmore Square.
- 700 Commonwealth Ave. (Warren Towers) -- On Sunday, vehicles will not be allowed to park on Commonwealth Ave. to prevent double-parking and blocking traffic through the Warren Towers garage. Motorcycles that fit into the garage will be allowed to park.
- South Campus -- From Wednesday through Sunday, the street will be one-way heading west, from Park Drive to Mourning Lane heading east, from Park Drive to Mourning Lane. Molloy says the arrangement is useful because there are a lot of people who double-park," he says. "If you see a person on either side and you shut it down, you're done."
- BU Bridge -- On Sunday, the BU Bridge will be closed for 30 minutes, from 1:15 to 1:45 p.m., to accommodate freshmen who will join Dean of Students for the annual procession along Comm Ave, from Comm Ave to Arena, for Matriculation.
- Harry Agganis Way/Buick Street -- From Wednesday through Sunday, students moving into 1019 Harry Agganis Way will be directed to park in the Agganis Arena garage. Harry Agganis Way will be closed from Wednesday through Sunday to accommodate Matriculation traffic. Buick Street will be closed from 1:30 to 2 p.m. for the same reason.
- Babcock Street -- From Wednesday through Sunday, students moving into Claflin, Sleeper, and Sleeper will park in the New Balance Field garage. Vehicles on Commonwealth Ave. can park in the garage.
- Kenmore Square -- Starting Tuesday, traffic will be heavy for nine straight days, which will make traffic especially heavy. The first pitch is scheduled for August 27, through Saturday, August 30, Sunday, September 1, and Labor Day Monday, September 2, and the following Tuesday and Wednesday.
