A group of Harvard students recently filmed themselves posing as Yale students and giving comical mock tours of the rival university's campus to prospective students and families.

On Harvard Time, a student comedy group, pulled off the prank ahead of Saturday's annual Harvard-Yale football game, which will be the 130th meeting between the two teams.

Watch fake campus tours in the above YouTube video, which has been viewed more than 280,000 times since it was published online two days ago.
