White meat or dark meat? Who cares?

The real question on everyone's mind this Thanksgiving might well be: Red or white?

According to Google Maps, the most-searched food and drink destinations in Massachusetts on the day before Thanksgiving are wine stores.

And it turns out the trend is true across much of the rest of the country.

Wine and liquor stores were the most-searched food and drink destinations on the day before Thanksgiving in 32 of the nation's 50 states, the company said.

“There's more to Thanksgiving dinner than just the food,” said a statement from the company. “A great drink pairing can elevate any meal — a culinary secret that people using Google Maps know well.”
