SOUTH HADLEY - A fire on Memorial Drive damaged three businesses on Thursday night.

The fire was reported at 10:55 p.m. It started in a rest room at the Hadley Mart convenience store and damaged an adjacent hair salon called In Vogue, according to the Fire Department. Ichibon, a restaurant next door, sustained some smoke damage.

All three businesses are located at 2090 Memorial Drive. The salon will reopen Saturday for regular business hours at 10 a.m., according to an automated message on the shop's phone. The convenience store and the restaurant owners could not be reached for comment; it was reported that the Hadley Mart owner said his business lost everything and will likely be closed for at least two to three months. There were no injuries reported in the fire. It is under investigation but does not appear to be suspicious, according to the Fire Department.
